EDITORS PICKS: 11 THINGS NOT TO MISS IN NEW YORK'S ART WORLD THIS WEEK

by Taylor Dafoe

Mark Flood, Vote for Law and Order [Blood Stain] (1992)

This week, check out a panel discussion on art and the internet, plus Mark Flood's protest signs go on view.

8. “Mark Flood: Protest Signs from 1992” at Karma

In 1992, Mark Flood made roughly 50 wry silkscreened paintings on cardboard for left-wing demonstrations at the Republican Convention in August of that year. “FREE THE RICH” read one. “FOUR MORE YEARS” boasted another. Twenty-eight years later, the signs recovered from those marches are on view together for the first time at Karma, and they still feel relevant.
